10 TIPS FOR SUCCESSFUL PUBLIC SPEAKING

INT

ERNATIONAL

F eeling some nervousness before giving a speech is nat ural and healthy. It shows you care about doing well. But too much nervousness can be detrimental. Here's how you can control your nervousness and make effective, memorable presentations:

- 1. Know the room. Be familiar with the place in which you will speak. Arrive early, walk around the speaking area and practice using the microphone and any visual aids.
- 2. Know the audience. Greet some of the audience as they arrive. It's easier to speak to a group of friends than to a group of strangers.
- 3. Know your material. If you're not familiar with your material or are uncomfortable with it, your nervous-ness will increase. Practice your speech and revise it if necessary.
- 4. Relax. Ease tension by doing exercises.
- 5. Visualize yourself giving your speech. Imagine yourself speaking, your voice loud, clear and assured. When you visualize yourself as successful, you will be successful.
- 6. Realize that people want you to succeed. Audiences want you to be interesting, stimulating, informative and entertaining. They don't want you to fail.
- Don't apologize. If you mention your nervousness or apologize for any problems you think you have with your speech, you may be calling the audience's attention to something they hadn't noticed. Keep silent.
- 8. Concentrate on the message not the medium. Focus your attention away from your own anxieties and outwardly toward your message and your audience. Your nervousness will dissipate.
- 9. Turn nervousness into positive energy. Harness your nervous energy and transform it into vitality and enthusiasm.
- 10. Gain experience. Experience builds confidence, which is the key to effective speaking. A Toastmasters Club can provide the experience you need.
